OFFICIAL BROOKFIELD ELKS SPORTS DRAW REGULATIONS

1. Only those who have purchased a ticket in the Brookfield Elks Sports Draw will be permitted to weigh-in their Deer and be eligible for the Brookfield Elks Sports Draw Prizes.
2. Tickets can be purchased up to the draw date.
3. To ensure fair and equal treatment, all deer must be weighed on the official Brookfield Elks Sports Draw scales. Weighing must be supervised by an official judge, or a member of the association, or their designate.
4. Dressed weights only will count. All deer must be opened from throat to tail and thoroughly cleaned out. The Judges may refuse to weigh any Deer that are not "dressed" to meet these Brookfield Elks Sports Draw standards.
5. All entrants must comply with the provincial game laws.
6. The judges' decisions are final. The executive will award the Brookfield Elks Sports Draw prizes on the weights the judges have allowed each entry.
7. Prize winners may be asked to sign a receipt for the delivery of their Brookfield Elks Sports Draw prize.
8. In the case where two or more Entrants receive the same weight or special class tie - doe will be decided by a draw, buck by adding length, width and points. This will determine which entrant receives the higher prize.
9. All deer with antlers will be officially weighed as bucks.
10. Length, width and points will only be measured if the head is attached.
11. If a hunter shoots more than one deer, consistent with Provincial regulations, the second deer will only be eligible for hunt prizes if the hunter has more than one Sports Draw ticket.
